

Disney Took a Twist

By Anna and Eimear

Once upon a time a group of Disney characters were on their way to Disneyland. On their way to Disneyland Popeye took a strange turn. Mickey Mouse asked Popeye "Where are we going Popeye?" Popeye didn't answer which was very strange. "This doesn't look like the way," said Dumbo. "WE ARE GOING TO DISNEY LAND!" Popeye shouted. "You don't need to break your timber over it" said Pinocchio.

All of a sudden Crash! The Cheshire Cat appeared. "Good thing the Queen of Hearts isn't here too," said Alice while laughing. "Tea time," said the Mad Hatter joyfully. "Two sugars for me," said the March Hare. "It is not tea time now," said Minnie.

Just then the boat started sinking. Mickey went out to ask Popeye "what's going on?" But Popeye was gone. Mickey ran back onto the boat to tell the others, "GONE!" they all shouted. "But how?" Alice asked. "I don't know," Mickey replied.

Then in the distances there was an island. "Anyone wants a biscuit?" the Mad Hatter asked. "I'll have one," the March Hare laughed. "With all this chatter we didn't see the island in front of us," Dumbo said. "Well then come on," Mickey said. "I don't know," said Minnie, "it looks pretty scary."

But they went anyway. They went further into the bushes when all of a sudden it was like they shrunk, there were giants everywhere. “RUN,” said the Cheshire cat. Then he disappeared. All the Disney characters got into the boat and sailed to a different island. “To Disneyland,” said Pinocchio.
