They went into the car and the wheel was punctured. Daddy Pig took the wheel off and made a new car. He made it and the wheel was punctured again. He was in the kitchen eating, and his tummy was getting bigger. Pippa and George were going to school. They were walking. When school was over, Pippa's friend Suzy Sheep came. They got a new pet called Salla Pig. He was playing football. They went to school again and were doing lots and lots of work.

It was Christmas and Santa came but got stuck in the chimney. The chimney cracked and Mammy Pig put on the fire. Daddy Pig was trying to get out of the chimney. George and Pippa went to school again and the chimney blew up. Daddy Pig flew up into the air and smashed the school. Pippa said "Daddy! That was the best school in the world!" ### Baby

Once upon a time my car broke down. I was bringing my cousin to County Wexford. He had to stay for another day with us. I had to go in my grandad's car. When I woke up my cousin was crying for his mammy. My Nanny and my Mammy settled him. The next morning he was gone. He went to bed when we were gone.

We got a new car, a different one. We borrowed it. This car was working fine.

Then our car went to the garage. When we were in our Nanny's house, my cousin was still crying. His name is Jake. I have an older cousin as well. He is called Ryan and he doesn't cry, because he's bigger.

Farming

Once there was a boy called Stephen. He had a friend called Tommy. It was a sunny day, and he got dressed and had his breakfast. Then he went outside. His dad called him to go somewhere. Dad wanted him to go to the shop to buy a surprise for him. Then he went walking on the road. He came to the shop. He bought a dinner. He came home and tidied his room because his Mam told him to.

When his room was tidy, there was only one thing left and he put it away in his drawer.

He played outside and then had to go shopping to buy dessert. Then he had to go farming. He shooed the sheep into the field. He had to go to for a cycle. Then he went in the car to Mass. He met his friend Tommy at Mass and sat beside him. He was hungry so he went to buy an apple.

He had to go shopping to get his Mam something. He got some wool and put it into the trailer and brought it to the wool sale. He went home and his friend came to his house and he started playing with him.
